

Call for papers to the 2013 conference on

Immigration and Labor Market Integration

At Hotel Foresta, Lidingö, January 13-14, 2014.

Stockholm University Linnaeus Center for Integration Studies (SULCIS), with financial support from FAS, invites submissions of papers to the 11th conference on Immigration and Labor Market Integration. We are happy to present this year's key note speaker:

Professor Alan Manning, London School of Economics

Please visit his home page at http://econ.lse.ac.uk/staff/amanning/index_own.html for more information.

The venue is Hotel Foresta (<http://www.scandichotels.se/Hotels/Sverige/Stockholm/Scandic-Foresta/>), Lidingö. The conference will start with lunch on January 13 and end with lunch on January 14.

Both quantitative and qualitative papers are invited from all social sciences dealing with immigration and integration issues. A committee will select the papers for presentation based exclusively on the quality and appropriateness of the submitted paper. We expect about ten presentations from Swedish and invited international guests. Please note that there is a limit of forty participants. The organizers will cover all accommodation expenses and conference fees.

Please submit papers to per.lundborg@sofi.su.se no later than November 15 and please register no later than November 25. Due to limitations in the number of participants, participation cannot be guaranteed. Upon registering, please indicate if you require hotel accommodation and any dietary restrictions.

Hoping to see you at Foresta,

Per Lundborg

Lena Nekby

Swedish institute for Social Research

Department of Economics
Stockholm university