

L'ORÉAL
WORLD LEADER IN BEAUTY PRODUCTS

To build beauty, we need talent.

Internship in Marketing at L'Oréal Sweden

Full-time, starting January 2012

Do you have a passion for fashion and trends? Are you eager to work for leading globalized brands in an international context being part of our professional team? At L'Oréal you will be given great responsibilities right from the start and straight away learn more about our working culture: passion for innovation, diversity, result orientation, creativity, team-spirit, fast career paths.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR

A creative, highly structured, multitasking and outgoing person with a commercial sense and an exceptional will to succeed. The position requires a holistic approach to be perfectly matched with modern standards and attention to detail. You have good knowledge in finance, design and communication. Preferably, you also have an interest in make - up.

TASKS

During the 12-month programme, you will develop and maintain L'Oréal's brand communication strategy to our permanent sales solutions in stores. You will also develop new merchandising projects together with our local and Nordic marketing team in close collaboration with our sales organization. In addition you will help our customers with their collection planning together with our Product Manager and Merchandising Manager

Coordinating information from external partners (suppliers) and internal stakeholders as well as budget and cost control will also be part of your daily work.

EDUCATION

Retail management or a degree in Business Administration.

Workplace: Alvik, Stockholm (Swedish headquarters)

How to Apply:

Send your CV and application ASAP to, Gordana Mihai, e-mail address: gordana.mihai@talentnetwork.se, tel 072-328 07 89

TALENT
NETWORK