

Course report

Course name and code: Advanced International Arbitration, JU678M

Semester: VT23

Credits: 15

Responsible teacher: Crina Baltag

Number of students: 26

Description of changes since previous year: No changes

The strengths of the course's according to the students

The students were overall very satisfied with the course. The students found the teaching and the assessments very useful in achieving the intended learning outcomes. The students praised the syllabus of the course as being comprehensive and interesting, and covering various contentious issues in international arbitration. The students highly appreciated the value of the guest lectures in adding the practical insights into the taught topics.

The weaknesses of the course according to the students

Most of the students had no comments here. The few ones who gave feedback suggested to add few more seminars to the course, as well as to increase the time allocated to certain particular topics, such as investment arbitration..

Teachers' comments

The structure, workload, examination and literature are appropriate for the course, and this transpires in the feedback from the students. Few more seminars will be added, as well as the time allocated to certain topics.