

Personal data processing in MoveOn

Stockholm University (Org.no. 202100-3062) is responsible for the processing of personal information.

Purpose of data collection

In order to process your application for scholarship, Stockholm University need to process your personal information.

What data do we collect?

Stockholm University collect information in connection with your application (The personal information we collect is your personal number, first and last name, birth date, nationality, post address, email, phone number, as well as the first and last name, phone number, and email address of your supervisor and a contact person in the field throughout your scholarship).

Legal basis for processing personal data

The legal basis for processing personal data in this registry is:

Public task (processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the university)

Recipient of data

The recipients of the data is mainly the employees of Stockholm University, the Swedish Council for Higher Education, and Sida.

Archiving and data erasure (storage time)

Stockholm University as a state authority is obliged to follow the Archives Act. This means that, as a rule, public documents at Stockholm University must be preserved. Your personal information will be stored in our database MoveOn and be anonymized after ten years.

The Data Subjects RightsRight to request information

You are entitled to, free of charge, to request information about how your personal information is stored and processed. Contact the university in writing (letter or email) and enter your name, personal number, postal address, telephone number, and e-mail address (used in communication with Stockholm University). The request should be sent to the mailing address: Stockholm University, SE-106 91 Stockholm. The e-mail address is registrator@su.se.

Right to request rectification

You are also entitled to request a correction, eg. correct incorrect or complement incomplete information about you. With regards to the provisions of the Archive Act, Stockholm University will not be able to remove data about you if there is no support in a data erasure directive.

Right to report a complaint with the Data Protection Authority

If you are dissatisfied with how the Stockholm University deals with your personal information, you are always entitled to contact the Swedish Data Protection Authority (Integritetsskyddsmyndigheten) with your complaints.

Further information about Privacy Policy at Stockholm University can be found here: <https://www.su.se/english/about-the-university/university-facts/about-this-website-and-processing-of-personal-data/processing-of-personal-data-at-stockholm-university>