

Program 4th December 2018: European Perspectives on Islamic Education and Public Schooling

9.30 -11.00

The Trojan Horse controversy in Birmingham
Karamat Iqbal

RETOPEA (Religious Tolerance and Peace)
Elena Arigita & Madis Maasing

Islamic Religious Education and the production of Islam as a 'normal' religion in Germany: Outline of a research project
Carmen Becker

Coffee

11.30-13.00

Halaqah: Dialogic pedagogy for Muslim Children in Uncertain Times
Farah Ahmed

Muslims in Poland in the Era of Civilizationism and Unprecedented Politicisation of Islam
Konrad Pedziwiatr

Religious Education, Islam, and Faculty of Theology in the University of Helsinki - Current perspectives
Tapani Innanen

Lunch

14.00-16.00

The content and origin of Polish Muslim Tatars' religious education textbooks – old traditions and new developments
Agata S. Nalborczyk

Experiencing two traditions of education, report from a London-school project.
Bill Gent & Jenny Berglund

Organiser

The International Symposium is organised by Jenny Berglund, professor in Religious Education, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences Education, Stockholm University

For more information: ire-europe@hds.su.se

The symposium is funded by Swedish Research Council and Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions, Cofund Project INCA 600398