

200 years of peace in Sweden

16 April, 2020, Zoom

List of participants

Magnus Petersson, Norwegian Institute for Defence Studies
Nevra Biltekin, Stockholm University
Leos Müller, Stockholm University
Fredrik Egefur, Lund University
Jacob Westberg, Swedish Defence University
Janne Väistö, Åbo Akademi University
Anne Hedén, Swedish Labour Movement's Archives and Library
Christopher Seiberlich, University of Tübingen
Aryo Makko, Stockholm University

Program

Thursday, April 16

Introduction: 08.45–9.30

Leos Müller, Magnus Petersson & Nevra Biltekin introduce the workshop.

Paper 1: 9.30–10.10

“Equality for peace. The »North-South Conflict« and social democratic foreign policy in West Germany, the Netherlands and Sweden”

Christopher Seiberlich, University of Tübingen

Chair and discussant: Nevra Biltekin

Discussant: Janne Väistö

BREAK: 10.10–10.20

PAPER 2: 10.20–11.00

“Finland, Sweden and Swedish-speaking Finns in a Cold War Context”

Janne Väistö, Åbo Akademi University

Chair and discussant: Magnus Peterson

Discussant: Fredrik Egefur

Paper 3: 11.00–11.40

“Why Small States Manage to Stay Out of Wars: Explaining Sweden's 200 Years of Peace”

Jacob Westberg, Swedish Defence University

Chair and discussant: Leos Müller

Discussant: Anne Hedén

LUNCH 11.40–12.30

PAPER 4: 12.30–13.10

“Neutrality and Sweden’s foreign policy, 1794-1856”

Leos Müller, Stockholm University

Chair and discussant: Aryo Makko

Discussant: Jacob Westberg

Paper 5: 13.10–13.50

“The Swedish Lotta Movement and it’s Neighbors: Navigating Neutrality, Peace Building and Women’s Issues in the Nordic/Scandinavian Context”

Anne Hedén, Swedish Labour Movement’s Archives and Library

Chair and discussant: Nevra Biltekin

Discussant: Christopher Seiberlich

Conclusion 13.50–14.30