

Department of Education

Fall 2020

Course Evaluation for Education and Human Rights, 7,5 hp

Course name: Education and Human Rights
Number of students examined: 19
Number of students who passed the course: 19
Changes to the course since last year: online due to pandemic
The strengths of the course (based on the quantitative results and written comments given in the course evaluation): A majority of the students found the course very good and that it was interesting and interactive.
The weaknesses of the course (based on the quantitative results and written comments given in the course evaluation): Students wanted more time for writing the course assignment and that the pace of the course was intense given online.
The lecturers analysis of the course: Thought provoking and interactive discussions in each session, however exhausting to give the course online.
Conclusion and suggested changes to the course: Will make sure to schedule the submission of the course assignment to provide ample time before course ends.

Department of Education

Stockholm University
106 91 Stockholm

Visting address:
Frescativägen 54
www.edu.su.se

Telephone: +46 8 16 20 00
Fax: +46 8 15 31 33