

The Swedish Arbitration Association Scholarship for the Master Programme in International Commercial Arbitration Law

The Swedish Arbitration Association (SAA) has donated a full-tuition scholarship for a student to participate in the Master in International Commercial Arbitration Law programme (ICAL) at Stockholm University for the academic year 2021-2022.

The ICAL programme is a globally recognized and top-ranked LL.M programme specialised in international arbitration. Every year, about 30 students from around the world participate in the programme and learn both theory and practice of arbitration law from prominent academics, arbitrators, and other practitioners.

Stockholm is a leading venue for international arbitration, home of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, and hosts a thriving commercial and arbitration legal community which supports and collaborates with the ICAL programme. Over the past decade, the ICAL programme has established a wide network of alumni who actively work in arbitration and commercial law in key firms, companies and organisations around the globe. By participating in the ICAL programme, students also join the ICAL global network.

- Who can apply for the scholarship?

Applicants from countries outside the EU/EEA and Switzerland and who are required to pay tuition fees.

- When to apply for the scholarship?

From 9-16 April 2021.

The documents submitted for admission to the ICAL programme will be used to assess the scholarship applications.

SAA

The Swedish Arbitration Association

The Swedish Arbitration Association (SAA) is a non-profit organization that promotes the practice and study of arbitration in Sweden. Through its range of activities and its extensive international network, it provides a platform for expanding and exchanging knowledge and experience for improving arbitration practice and enhancing Sweden as an international leader in the field.

The SAA arranges seminars, courses, and conferences, including the biannual and highly popular Swedish Arbitration Days. The SAA collaborates with other organisations, in Sweden and internationally, contributing to the development of arbitration, bringing together practitioners and arbitrators, and ensuring that Sweden remains a renowned venue for hosting arbitration.

Visit them at swedisharbitration.se.

For more information about the scholarship, please contact:
master@juridicum.su.se