ORCiD is an international, unique researcher-id. ORCiDs contain 16 numbers: 0000-0002-1825-0097.

Affiliation should only be filled in for authors who are affiliated with Stockholm University.

Department should be the same as the one in the publication. If an author is affiliated with both SU and one or more organisations other than SU in the publication, these organisations should also be filled in. Use the field “Other organisation” and use the following format: Organisation, Country

Collaborating organisations such as KTH or KI should not be entered in the field “Other organisation”. However, if the collaborating organisation is an written down independently among the affiliations, it should be entered into the “Other organisation”-field.

If there are more than one external organisation, separate them using a semicolon, for example: Uppsala University, Sweden; University of Helsinki, Finland

“Research group” should not be entered.
“Other contributor” should only be used when a contributor is not an author.

“Number of authors” should be entered when less than the total number of authors has been entered in the “Author”-fields.
2. Organisation
You can find your institution by searching for it, or by clicking the name in the list. Parent organisations are automatically included.

Please note that some departments may be closed down! Older departments can be found by searching, or by clicking “Show departments that are closed down”.

3. Title

The title of the article should be entered as it is written in the publication. If the title is separated in a main title and a subtitle, a colon will be automatically generated.

If the main title and subtitle are separated by punctuation other than a colon, for example a dash, the entire title should be entered in the “Main title”-field.

If there is an alternative title, for example a translated title, enter it in the subtitle field in square brackets.

4. Content type

Content type is a required field for the researcher. The field will be checked by librarians and changed if it is obviously wrong.
5. Part of book

The title of the article should be entered as it is written in the publication. If the title is separated in a main title and a subtitle, a colon will be automatically generated.

If the main title and subtitle are separated by punctuation other than a colon, for example a dash, the entire title should be entered in the “Main title”-field.

Fill in the names of the editors. Enter the names of the editors in the same order as they are given in the book, separate the names with semicolons. Do not use “and” or “&”. If there are a lot of editors, enter the name of the first editor and “et al.”.

6. Other information

Note that the publication year may change, for example from 2016 to 2017, if the chapter was registered before the book was published!
7. Series

Other series:

The list consists of series published by Stockholm University. External series are entered manually in the "Other series"-field.

EISSN should only be used when you are certain that it is associated with a digital version of the series.

8. Utgivare
Publisher should primarily be chosen from the list.

Place may be filled in if the information is available in the publication, otherwise skip it.

If the publisher does not appear in the list, enter it manually in the “Other publisher”-field.

9. Identifiers

ISBN:
There are three alternatives for the ISBN: “Undefined”, “Print”, “Electronic”.

The main rule is that you should only choose the alternative “Electronic” if you are certain that the ISBN belongs to a digital version, otherwise choose “Undefined” or “Print”.

DOI:
Note that the DOI should be associated with the chapter, not the book! The librarians checking the entry will add DOI-numbers if the field is empty. The prefix http://doi.org/ will be omitted and just the numbers will remain. If the DOI-link is repeated in the URL-field it will be removed.
URL:
URL should be used carefully. It should only be entered if the chapter is published and available for free online. The URL should point towards the chapter, like the DOI. In the label-field, enter Fri fulltext alternatively Free full text if the chapter is in English, and check the “Free full-text” box.

10. National subject category

National subject category should be entered at the 3-number level at a minimum:

For Medical and Health Sciences and Arts it should be entered at the 5-number level:
11. Research subject

The list of research subjects is a local list of the subjects which are researched at Stockholm University. It is optional for the researcher to choose a subject from this list and it will not be checked by the librarians.

12. Keywords

The keywords should be the same as in the publication.

The keywords should be separated by commas.

If the researcher enters their own keywords, these will be checked by the librarians.

13. Abstract

The abstract should be the same as in the publication.

If an abstract is entered, it will be checked by a librarian.
