

The Future of Past Animals: Global Perspectives in Zooarchaeology

International Council for Archaeozoology

International Conference

June 17–18, 2022

Osteoarchaeological Research Laboratory
Department of Archaeology and Classical Studies
Stockholm University, Sweden

June 17, Friday

<https://stockholmuniversitet.zoom.us/j/66587266919>

Meeting ID: 681 0897 6357

09:00–09:10 Opening address: Łászló Bartosiewicz

09:10–09:30 Umberto Albarella: Why we need 'world zooarchaeology': research internationalism in the era of climate emergency and borders' control

Session 1 Chair: Jean-Denis Vigne

09:30–10:00 Sara Whitcher Kansa: Avoiding "Data Dead Ends" in Zooarchaeology: Lessons from Reuters

10:00–10:20 Suzanne Pilaar Birch: Data integration and synthesis in zooarchaeology

10:20–10:40 Lembi Lõugas: Development of archaeozoological collections in Estonia: new storage options and data management

10:40–11:00 Coffee/Tea Break

Session 2 Chair: Richard Meadow

11:00–11:20 Marjan Mashkour: Reading Zooarchaeology in Tehran; 25 years of post-revolution adventures in academic training of "rare disciplines" in Iran.

11:20–11:40 Angelos Hadjikoumis: Zooarchaeology in Cyprus: history, recent developments and comparisons with other areas

11:40–12:00 Arati Deshpande-Mukherjee: Molluscan resource exploitation and paleogeography inferred using archaeomalacological data from the Harappan metropolis of Dholavira, Gujarat

12:00–14:30 Lunch

Session 3 Chair: Hitomi Hongo

14:30–14:50 Pam Crabtree: Long-term changes in animal husbandry and hunting: Evidence from Kinik Höyük and Çiftlik-Tepecik in Cappadocia, Turkey

14:50–15:10 Evangelia Ioannidou Pişkin: Animal sacrificial offerings at Sapinuwa, a religious center of the Hittite empire, Late Bronze Age, Turkey

15:10–15:30 Richard Thomas: Feeding Anglo-Saxon England: the bioarchaeology of a revolution in agriculture

15:30–15:50 Coffee/Tea Break

Session 4 Chair: László Bartosiewicz

15:50–16:10 Richard Madgwick: Wet hooves: Exploring wetland animal husbandry through sulphur (³⁴S) isotope analysis

16:10–16:30 Joaquin Arroyo-Cabrales, Victor Adrian Pérez-Crespo, and César A. Ríos-Muñoz. Advances in biogeochemical analyses in archeozoological studies from Latin America

16:30–16:50 Markus Fjällström, Anna-Kaisa Salmi: Zooarchaeological and stable isotope evidence of reindeer skeletal remains from Sámi archaeological contexts

June 18, Saturday

<https://stockholmuniversity.zoom.us/j/65763985245>

Meeting ID: 657 6398 5245

Session 5 Chair: Cleia Detry

09:20–09:40 Luis Alberto Borrero: Western and Eastern Patagonia: Availability of Faunas Before the Arrival of Humans

09:40–10:00 Shaw Badenhorst: A preliminary assessment of zooarchaeological assemblage sizes from South Africa

10:00–10:20 Marta Moreno García: Neolithic sheep herding in the Spanish Pyrenees: archaeozoological and isotopic approaches

10:20–10:40 Coffee/Tea Break

Session 6 Chair: Hans Christian Küchelmann

10:40–11:00 Aikaterini Glykou: The story of the Baltic Sea harp seal: Reconstructing the history of an extinct population

11:00–11:20 Maiken Hemme Bro-Jørgensen: The Baltic grey seal: A 9000-year history of presence and absence

11:20–11:40 Erika Gál: Midden on the hilltop: the kitchen refuse of the 14th-15th century archbishopry in Esztergom, N-Hungary

11:40–12:00 Emma Maltin: From diet to cuisine: Fish in the culinary culture of Nya Lödöse (1473-1624), Sweden

12:00–14:30 Lunch

Session 7 Chair: Luis Borrero

14:30–14:50 Mariana Mondini: From bones to poo: multiple lines of evidence to understand past human-animal relationships in El Bolsón valley, Catamarca, Argentina

14:50–15:10 Sara Gummesson: Mesolithic bird exploitation in Sweden?

15:10–15:30 Sabine Deschler-Erb: Pick of the bunch: On the interdisciplinary analysis of cremation graves

15:30–15:50 Coffee/Tea Break

Session 8 Chair: Lizzie Wright

15:50–16:10 Stella Macheridis: Animal husbandry in Iron Age Scania, Sweden

16:10–16:30 Canan Çakırlar: Concluding camels: Final (for now) report on hybrid camels in the Ancient Near East

16:30–16:50 Eugene Costello: From upland to urban: tracing livestock production at the 'periphery' of early modern Europe