

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide, consisting of a dark blue branch with several leaves and small circular fruits, rendered in a stylized, flat design.

Skiljedomsrätt Arbitration

Stockholm
University

Stockholm
University

The team

Daria Kozłowska-Rautiainen
Senior Lecturer

Crina Baltag
Associate Professor

+ Guest lectures with top Swedish and international arbitration specialists

STRUCTURE OF THE ARBITRATION COURSE

Week 3 Introduction

Week 4 Arbitration Agreement

Week 5 Applicable Law

Week 6 Arbitral Tribunal

Week 7&8 Arbitration Procedure

Week 9 Arbitration Mock – written phase

Week 10 Arbitral Award

Week 11 Arbitration Mock – hearing phase

Week 12 Specific Topics

Structure of an example week

- Introductory lecture
- Two or three seminars on specific topics within the theme of the week
- One of two guest lecturers with top practitioners in the field – often at a law firm

EXAMINATION

The course's examination comprises the following:

- 1) Active participation in at least 80% of the seminars (we plan to have around 15 obligatory seminars)
- 2) A six-page essay (in English or Swedish)
- 3) Active participation in the mock arbitration
- 4) Case exam (in English or Swedish)

WHY STUDY ARBITRATION IN STOCKHOLM?

- International arbitration hub:
 - SCC Arbitration Institute
 - Top specialists
 - International events
 - Home to the Top ranked LL.M. Programme in International Commercial Arbitration

WHO SHOULD REGISTER?

Those who are:

- Interested in commercial arbitration – experienced or not
- Wanting to gain detailed knowledge on arbitration
- Craving an international experience
- Looking to broaden their professional network