Bolin Centre for Climate Research

A collaboration between Stockholm University, KTH and SMHI

Week 38, 2020

Click here to read the letter in your browser

The Bolin Centre is a multi-disciplinary consortium of over 400 scientists in Sweden that conducts research and graduate education related to the Earth's climate.

Gia Destouni receives Sigge Thernwalls prize 2020

Sigge Thernwall's prize is given to dedicated persons with innovative solutions when bringing their own and others' research from theory to practical application in society. The prize is administered by Ramboll and the winners are chosen by the Royal Swedish Academy of Engineering Science (IVA). This year, Gia Destouni at Department of Physical Geography, was one of three winners.

Thematic sessions Bolin Days 2020

The Bolin Days are our annual conference where new climate science results are presented and we meet each other to exchange ideas, share our experience and find new inspiration.

What themes would you like to see during the Bolin Days 2020? If you have something in mind that you do not want us to miss in the planning process, please contact one of the Research Area leaders. Your thoughts and opinions matter to us as we are planning an event for all our members.

Welcome to nominate the Bert Bolin Climate Lecturer 2021

You are cordially invited to nominate the Bert Bolin Climate Lecturer 2021. To honor Professor Bert Bolin, the Faculty of Science at Stockholm University established the annual Bert Bolin Climate Lecture in 2008, shortly after Bert Bolin had passed away. Since then, a distinguished Bert Bolin Climate Lecturer is invited each year to Stockholm to hold a popular science lecture and a science seminar at the Bolin Centre for Climate Research.

We are looking forward to receiving your nominations, please use the attached template and send it to bolin@su.se no later than September 30th, 2020.

This year's Bolin Lecture was given by Professor Roberto Buizza, see it here»

November

Bolin Days

The Bolin Days will take place in a COVID-19- adjusted format. If you are interested in Climate and the Earth Sciences, you are welcome to join in! More info will follow.

OTHER EVENTS AND INFORMATION

23
September

Private Sector Adaptation Finance and Nature Based Solutions

Experts will share their views on how to increase funding for nature-based solutions to build resilience in coastal areas. The aim is to provide concrete recommendations on a finance roadmap to support nature-based solutions to reduce disaster risks. The event is organized by SEI, The Nature Conservancy and UNEP.

Baltic Sea Days 2020

Time and venue: Nov 4, at 08.00 – 17.00, online

At Stockholm University, marine research is performed by almost 300 researchers across nine different departments. To promote and strengthen the Baltic Sea research at the university, the Baltic Sea Centre arranges the virtual conference Baltic Sea Day.

Programme will be published on Baltic Sea Centre's web site»

Apply for funding: Research projects in cooperation with Region Stockholm

Researchers employed at Stockholm University can apply for funding for research projects in cooperation with Region Stockholm. The research project should have connection to challenges for the region and be innovative within areas of knowledge deficit.

Call deadline: October 2, 2020.

Arctic Avenue Fall Call 2020

The Arctic Avenue Fall Call 2020 is now open. Application deadline is October 20, 2020. Specific information for the call and application »

Please send the application to the Arctic Avenue Steering Committee by email to Annika Granebeck and Kaarina Weckström. State Application for Arctic Avenue funding in the subject heading.

A call is also planned for spring 2021. Welcome with your application!

Researchers' Grand Prix

Researchers' Grand Prix (Forskar Grand Prix) is a Swedish competition that has been run annually since 2012. We challenge researchers to present their research in as captivating, inspiring and educational a way as possible – in just four minutes! Together, expert judges and the audience decide the winner.

Would you like to become excellent at explaining your research? N.Ö.R.D. is the digital heat that gives researchers all over Sweden a chance to directly win a place in the final, so send us your contribution to enter! Apply no later than 15 November 2020. Good luck!
