NEW RESEARCH AT THE BOLIN CENTRE

It's in your glass!

A new article, about the history of sea level and storminess from the Laphroaig bog, Islay, is just out. Several researchers from the Bolin Centre is behind the article.

In Swedish | Så startade Golfströmmen

Golfströmmen startade för 34 miljoner år sedan när förflyttningar av kontinentalplattor täppte till flöden av sötvatten till Atlanten. Det visar ny svensk forskning som genom data-simuleringar har hittat sambandet. Artikeln, som är skriven av David K. Hutchinson tillsammans med flera andra forskare från Bolincentret, plockades b.l.a. upp av SVT.

BOLIN CENTRE SEMINARS AND EVENTS

Welcome to the workshop Carbon dioxide neutrality - from issues to change

Time & place: September 18, 11h00-16h30 in Aula Magna

Welcome to attend The Bolin Centre Climate Arena workshop with the theme Carbon dioxide neutrality - from issues to change. The Climate arena contributes to the strategic goal of the Bolin Centre: to create and communicating climate science, while at the same time initiating new collaborations and opportunities for attracting future funding. The arena creates a platform where researcher and external partners can meet and discuss - and the external partners would much like to meet you!

We will start the workshop with presentations and end with discussions. The presentations will involve:

- Fossilfritt Sverige
- JPI Climate
- The New Paradigm of Electric Power
- The Swedish Billion
- Hagainitiativet

Involved in the workshop so far is: City of Stockholm, Stockholm Water and Waste, Preem, Johannas Stadsodlingar AB, The Swedish Development Forum (FUF), Skarl AB, Region Stockholm, Jernkontoret, Skogsindustrierna, Regeringskansliet, SLU, Braflyg, We Dont Have Time, Ericsson, LRF, Hagainitiativet, Klimatriksdagen, RISE.

Elisabeth Däcker is the Bolin Centre contact for this project. Please contact Elisabeth if you would like to take part in the workshop and/or if you have any thoughts or questions, elisabeth.dacker@geo.su.se.
