Bolin Centre for Climate Research

A collaboration between Stockholm University, KTH and SMHI

Week 45, 2018

The Bolin Centre is a multi-disciplinary consortium of over 350 scientists in Sweden that conducts research and graduate education related to the Earth's climate.

Welcome to join the Bolin Centre Climate Arena

A national program to promote new collaboration arenas is being financed by Vinnova and the Bolin Centre Climate Arena is the arena that Stockholm University has prioritized. The time to become involved is now! The arena is currently being initiated and you are invited to participate.

We need to identify stakeholders/partners. If you want to be part of the project directly or indirectly, you are so welcome, as hopefully you will find that your own research field could contribute to the Climate Arena. Also of interest is if you have external contacts that you would like to involve or if you can think of external contact that may be interested in the Climate Arena. Examples of already engaged external partners are the Swedish Environmental Agency, MAX Burgers and Snowflake Education.

The Bolin Centre Climate Arena aims to aid in "bending the curve" for the increasing temperature changes of the world by:

- Develop long lasting relations with external partners and society
- Enhance the impact and utilisation of knowledge and research
- Promote climate education for the future

Elisabeth Däcker will be the Bolin Centre contact in this project. Please contact Elisabeth if you would like to join and/or if you have any thoughts or questions, elisabeth.dacker@geo.su.se

Register to the Bolin Days

It is high time to register for the 10th Bolin Days. We only have a few seats left for the dinner followed by a ceilidh with live music. Welcome to register as soon as possible to secure your seat.

Deadline for registration is November 16. You need to register for fika, lunch and dinner. It is possible to join sessions without registration if there are seats left. Welcome!
