Personal introduction

I am Professor of Education and Child and Youths Studies at the Department of Child and Youth studies at Stockholm University, Sweden. My background, with degrees in both the humanities (literature) and the behavioral and social sciences, have deemed important to the development of my career. It started at the Stockholm Institute of Education, where I was granted a four-year full-time PhD scholarship in 1996.

My initial interests were in philosophy of education and sociological theory, and the conditions for and possibilities of change and transformation of educational practices – in early childhood institutions and in higher education. This interest is the same 25 years later. Going beyond the theory/practice divide is not just the title of my most cited publication (a monography) but encapsulates a core focus of my research and teaching interests.

Informed by my multidisciplinary undergraduate background I nurture an interest in science theory (ontology and epistemology), in theory at large and in method and methodology. These interests have also made me act on the early opportunities I got to engage in graduate and PhD education course-work, which in Sweden make up almost half of the four-year full-time doctorate studies. With the experience I had of PhD supervision and research studies, I became Director of research studies at the department of Education a year before I was promoted full Professor (in 2011).

The combination of engagements in the developments of higher education and early education has been productive throughout my work. It has encouraged me to do inter- and transdisciplinary research (including a large RCT trial) and teaching-practices, which are sensitive to the performativity of power-productions. Equally productive has been the combination of philosophy and science theory, with a focus on what different kinds of ontologies, epistemologies and methodologies can produce on their own and, foremost, together in multidisciplinary forms of research.

Hence, my present research concerns the possibilities of onto-epistemological emerging forms of methodologies in educational settings in collaborations with teachers/practitioners and children/youth. A core part of my present commitments, however, are in social innovative work in preschools in vulnerable communities. The focus is on the enhancement of language-development by ways of thinking and knowing in playful multidisciplinary and aesthetic explorations.

International, Nordic and National academic research networks and research seminars

- 2010-ongoing National Meetingplace for Early Childhood Education Researchers. Annual one day meetings to present ongoing and finished research across universities and colleges. (on ZOOM during the pandemic). Alternating organizers across universities.
- 2022-ongoing National The seminar for Feminist Theory and Methodology at Stockholm University, Department of Child and Youth Studies and open to anyone nationally and internationally. Started in the autumn of 2022 by Hillevi Lenz Taguchi, Linnea Bodén, Tanja Joelsson, Emilie Moberg och Danielle Ekman Ladru. Replacing Reacting Sisters (see below) <https://www.su.se/barn-och-ungdomsvetenskapliga-institutionen/kalender/seminariet-f%C3%B6r-feministisk-teori-och-metod-p%C3%A5-buv-1.622317>
- 2006-ongoing Nordic Network for Postperspectives in the educational sciences: Funded by NFPF/NERA The Nordic Educational Research Association with annual meetings before the Nordic Educational Research Conference. (Previously Poststructuralist network) Around 40 members.
- 2020-2022 National Network Symposia arranged to enhance future research collaborations and disseminate knowledge from research to educational practices. Financed by the National Research Council (VR). Title: Educational neuroscience- where do we stand and where is the future? (with Håkan Fischer SU, Bert Jonsson and Carola Wiklund-Hörnqvist Umeå University). Symposia with external lecturers Prof. Deborah Youdell, Birgmingham, UK; Prof. Torkel Klingberg, Karolinska Institute. <https://www.umu.se/forskning/grupper/samhallsvetenskapliga-fakulteten/b/beteendevetenskapliga-matningar/exploratory-workshop-in-cognitive--educational-neuroscience/workshop-1/>
- 2020-2022 International (SASUF) South African and Sweden University Forum. SASUF funding (main applicants Dr Vivienne Bozalek & Dr Hillevi Lenz Taguchi) received in 2020 that set out to explore preliminary transnational dialogues between key and emerging scholars from South Africa (University of the Western Cape, Stellenbosch University and Cape Peninsula University of Technology) and Sweden (Stockholm University and Linköping University). Our project which was placed in the Education for a Sustainable Society theme, focused on reconceptualising higher education using feminist new materialist imaginaries. We met on ZOOM 7 times for workshops and 10 scholars met live (and 2 on ZOOM) in Stockholm August 16-22nd 2022, arranged by Hillevi Lenz Taguchi. <https://sasufgoesdigital2022.sched.com/>
- 2018-2020 National NUNU Network: Network for Neuro- and developmental sciences in education, at Stockholm University. Main-organizer with Prof. Håkan Fischer. We organized two larger research symposia 1-2 days with appr. 35 involved researchers and national and international keynote speakers, plus 7 research seminars during a 2-year period. The idea of the network is to collaborate across disciplines in teacher education and research. Invited external lecturers at symposia: Prof. Courtney Stevens (cognitive neuroscience), Univ. of Oregon; Prof. Gillian Einstein (cognitive neuroscience), Univ. of Toronto; Prof. Sebastian Lipina (cognitive neuroscience), Unidad de Neurobiología Aplicada; Prof. Torkel Klingberg (cognitive neuroscience), (KI) Karolinska Institutet, neuroscience, Dr. Lisa Thorell (psychology) (KI); Dr. Corrado Matta (pedagogy), Linné University; Professor Agneta Gulz (cognitive neuroscience), Lund University.
- 2018-2018 International The Manifold Lab. At Manchester Metropolitan University. Elizabeth de Freitas & Maggie McLure. Troubling Methods of Inquiry in the Biosocial Field:

Provocations for the Biosocial Lab Event, 12 & 13 June, 2018. Molecular Societies: Navigating the biosocial turn in the environmental humanities and social sciences.

<https://www.mmu.ac.uk/research/research-centres/esri/research-groups/manifold-lab>

- 2008-2022 Local Reacting Sisters for postperspectives in research. A closed research seminar at Stockholm university, Department of Child & Youth Studies. Originally started by Hillevi Lenz Taguchi but with temporary leadership. Previously named: "Plateau for Feminist Pedagogy and Educational Theory" – a trans-disciplinary and inter-institutional meeting-place for collaborative research analysis and academic writing that goes beyond the theory/practice, discourse/matter, human/nonhuman binary divides.

Third strand Center building

Management of the Centre for Gender and Education Studies

2001-2008 In 2003 I was appointed manager and chairman for the Centre for Gender and Educational Studies at the Stockholm Institute of Education by (rector) Vice Chancellor Eskil Franck. The centre had been started by me and Ulla Lind in 2001 by the name of the "Gender-group" without funding. During the years 2003-2007, I was chairman for the Centre as part of my responsibilities as assistant professor. Tasks shared with with Dr. Kajsa Ohrlander who was employed 40% at the center was:

1. Internal and external consultation in issues of gender and education: inside of the Institute of Education as well as in relation to other teacher educations around the country, schools and preschools.
2. Organisation of courses and networks in professional development for preschool teachers and teachers as well as for teacher educators.
3. Open-lecture series at the Institute of Education.
4. Organising an annual "Genderday" open to students, staff and the public.
5. Supervision-seminar for undergraduate students writing on gender-issues.
6. Developing courses on the doctors/research level in feminist theories and methodologies.
7. Higher seminar in "Gender and Education" for research students.
8. Co-operation with the Gender-equality committee at the Stockholm Institute of Education.
9. Commissions from the National Agency for Education to do investigations.
10. Evaluation of gender-equality projects at the Institute of Education concerning enrolling more men into teacher education.
11. Constructing a web-page and internal and external newsletters.

The center was shut down when the Stockholm Institute of Education was merged with Stockholm University.

Third strand networking across academia and educational practices

- 1996-ongoing Förskoledidaktiska rum [Early childhood education theory/practice encounters]
Meetingplace for researchers and practitioners 2-4 times per year where practitioners bring documented practices for researchers to discuss with them in relation to a pre-discussed problem. <https://www.su.se/barn-och-ungdomsvetenskapliga-institutionen/om-institutionen/samarbeten/f%C3%B6rskoledidaktiska-rum-1.596430>
- 2014-2020 This meeting-place was used during the years 2014-2020 for the RCT and multi-disciplinary project Enhancing preschool children's attention, language... with meetings at least 4 times per semester with invited researchers to discuss children's learning and development as well as the upcoming research practices of the project. Invited external researchers Prof. Torkel Klingberg (cognitive neuroscience), (KI) Karolinska Institutet, neuroscience, Professor Agneta Gulz (cognitive neuroscience), Lund University; Prof. Åsa Nilsson (psychotherapist); Prof. Gunnar Bjursell (genetics).

Social innovation

2021-ongoing KALEJDOSKOPET AB (a non-profit company). A social innovation for enhancing small children's language development in vulnerable environments across artistic work and scientific knowledge. A collaboration between the NGO Article31 (Anette Andersson) <https://www.artikel31.se/> and Stockholm University (Prof. Hillevi Lenz Taguchi and Dr. Anna Palmer) as owners. Collaborating with the local city of Rinkeby-Kista-Husby-Akalla (stadsdel), western Stockholm, regarded as one of the most high-risk areas by the police and with a low socio-economic status. (Seed-funding has been granted as reported above.) Present work includes intensive courses with preschool teachers in socio-emotional and language development ages 0-5 yrs. Planning of events for children, families and preschool staff. (Youtube presentation from Open Lab course: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SC_pQShKV6Q&t=60s)

Appearances in the media

2000-ongoing Total of 12 appearances in media. Primarily interviews in magazines for teachers/preschool teachers, Educational TV interviews, etc.

Leadership

2015-2018	Co-director of department unit (20%) with responsibilities for scientific development of research education and research in the discipline of Early Childhood Education at the Deptment of Child & Youth studies, Stockholm University.
2013-2015	Director of department unit (50%) of 35 employees. Dept. Child & Youth studies, Stockholm University. The situation of this department and especially this unit of early childhood education and research (FUFF) was chaotic in all possible ways, with no functioning PhD or Master program, and an understaffed teacher education program. My leadership started with closing the Master program, reshaping the PhD course-work and hiring new staff at all levels. A full transformation of the academic administration was needed and performed during these 2 ½ years, before handing over the leadership to a new professor as I got a big research grant for an interdisciplinary RCT where I led 14 researchers and assistants with Dr. Tove Gerholm (linguistics) in four disciplines.
2010-2013	Director of research studies (50% with an ADM assistant 50%) leading 30 full professors and associate professors in a collaborative development of a new PhD program. (An enrolment of over 100 PhD students, some admitted 15 years before.) I led a persuasive transformation process of the PhD program together with my colleagues, which rewarded us with the completion of an internationally strong PhD program in the disciplines of education, didactics and international education.

Leadership and management education

2011-2012	A one-year leadership and management course for academic leaders given by Stockholm University consisting of 13 whole day lectures, seminars and workshops.
