Plenary for Mini-Conference: Advanced Linguistic Ethnography?

PhD Course in the Faculty of Humanities Research School

Can we really talk about 'advanced' linguistic ethnography, and if so, what does it look like? This paper offers quite a personal view of training programmes, PhDs, interdisciplinary relationships and academic career structures.

► Time and place: Thursday 15 December at 10–11 o'clock in Gula Villan and on Zoom. (Few places left in Gula Villan: please email Caroline.Kerfoot@biling.su.se if you would like to attend.)
