

Master/Magister thesis in Sociology: Times and Dates Fall 2023

Confirmation of participation (with topic, data, method, supervisor and planned completion date). Only for new participants. Submit before September 15 at 16:00. If you are unable to submit at this date but plan to complete your thesis during this the term, please contact the course leader.

Thesis submission and defense. Master and magister theses must be submitted well in advance of the examination seminars, which are held at regular intervals. Please observe that the thesis submission deadlines are strict and late submissions will be examined during a later period. Below, an interval for examinations is given, and the exact time and date is determined by the availability of examiners within that interval. Thus, you must be available during the whole period given below. When your supervisor has approved your thesis, submit it in pdf-format on the teaching platform Athena.
