ARCTIC AVENUE

Welcome to the Second Annual Meeting, August 10-12 2020

The Arctic Avenue second annual meeting will be held at the Kilpisjärvi Research Station on the 10th-12th of August 2020. The full 3-day programme will consist of talks (with a focus on Arctic Avenue projects), visits to field study sites and excursions in the Kilpisjärvi area. Please visit the web page of the research station for more information on the venue and on the beautiful landscapes and interesting flora and fauna of the region. We hope to see many of you there!

Spring Call 2020

The Arctic Avenue Spring Call 2020 is now open. Application deadline is February 20. Specific information for the call and application form is downloadable HERE.

Please send the application to the Arctic Avenue Steering Committee by email to Annika Granebeck, annika.granebeck@su.se and Kaarina Weckström, kaarina.weckstrom@helsinki.fi. State Application for Arctic Avenue funding in the subject heading.

Calls are also planned for autumn 2020 and spring 2021. Welcome with your application!

Smaller funding

Arctic Avenue offers its members the possibility to submit smaller applications for funding throughout the year. These cannot exceed 1000 € per project, and will be decided by the co-leaders. For 2019, priority projects for these small funds will be seed-money to form new collaborations within Arctic Avenue. You are welcome to send an application to atte.korhola@helsinki.fi and nina.kirchner@natgeo.su.se. The application can have the same format as the Arctic Avenue Spring Call 2020.

Publication plan for Arctic Avenue

Arctic Avenue aims for a special issue in Arktos, published by Springer, at the end of the project. All researchers involved in Arctic Avenue are invited to participate. We also have plans for a synthesis paper. More information will be given at the second annual meeting next year.

Visual Identity

Targeted and goal-oriented communication is an excellent tool to develop Arctic Avenue's work. We therefore encourage you to use Arctic Avenue's visual identity in communications wherever it is possible and appropriate, such as conferences, posters, seminars, etc. If you have received funding from Arctic Avenue we also ask you to acknowledge Arctic Avenue when disseminating results from the project.
