

TEACHING POSITION – instructions for applicants

To apply for a teaching position (assistant professor/associate senior lecturer, associate professor/senior lecturer, or professor) at Stockholm University, please upload the documents described below to the University's recruitment system. The recruitment system can be reached through the relevant job advertisement at the Stockholm University's website www.su.se/job.

Documents to upload when applying for a position

- COVER LETTER
- CV (in accordance with template, see below)
- OTHER DOCUMENTS

Some documents are obligatory and must be attached before you can submit your application. If you do not have a requested obligatory document, you must attach a document explaining why it is missing.

On the following pages we will describe in more detail what we expect each document to contain. Please note that in many recruitment processes, your application will be reviewed by experts whose working language is English. In these cases, it will be stated in the recruitment form, and possibly in the advertisement, that we would like your application to be written in English.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the application is complete and satisfies the requirements specified in the job announcement, and that it is submitted before the closing date for applications.
